Award-winning rockers The Red Clay Strays have announced their first-ever fan festival. “Fan Fest 2026” is set to take place over five nights from Wednesday, June 24 - Sunday, June 28, at one of the band’s favorite venues in the country, Abayance Bay Marina in Rexford, MT. During the five nights, fans will see a live headlining show from The Red Clay Strays as well as intimate performances and stories from the band to kick the weekend off. They will also get to experience headlining shows by Lukas Nelson and St. Paul & the Broken Bones. An open-mic event will open the festivities on the first night. The complete schedule is below.

Pre-sale tickets go on sale beginning Wednesday, January 28, at 9 AM (local), while the general on-sale starts Friday, January 30, at 9 AM (local). Besides the music, fans will be able to purchase limited-edition merch, receive giveaways, and go on breathtaking hikes, all adding up to an unforgettable Red Clay Strays fan experience that no one will get anywhere else. “RCS Fan Fest 2026” will be a very family-friendly event, with free admission for kids six and under. All ticketing information can be found here or in the official Red Clay Strays App.

“RCS Fan Fest will be a high-energy celebration dedicated to the fans who keep the music loud and the spirit alive,” says lead singer Brandon Coleman. “These last few years have been incredible, and it’s all because of the fans! We want our closest fans to know how much we appreciate them, so we’ve programmed a week-long extravaganza in the most beautiful part of the country we know and invited our good buddy Lukas Nelson and our Alabama brothers,

ABOUT THE RED CLAY STRAYS:

One of music's fastest-rising bands, The Red Clay Strays are Brandon Coleman (lead vocals, guitar, keys), Drew Nix (electric guitar, vocals, harmonica), Zach Rishel (electric guitar), Andrew Bishop (bass), John Hall (drums), and Sevans Henderson (keys). Formed in Mobile, Alabama, in 2016, the Strays released their debut album, Moment of Truth, in 2022, featuring the breakout single, "Wondering Why," which propelled the band into the top 10 on Billboard's Hot Rock & Alternative Songs Chart and inside the top 20 of the Billboard Hot Country Songs Chart.

In 2024, the group signed to RCA Records and released their critically acclaimed sophomore album, Made by These Moments. Produced by Grammy Award-winning producer Dave Cobb (Chris Stapleton, Jason Isbell), Made by These Moments is filled with the band's signature genre-blending sound, as they meld electric rock and roll with southern soul. The record marked the band's first entry into the Billboard 200 and debuted in the top 10 of the Billboard Top Country Albums Chart, helping to earn them the win for 'Emerging Artist of the Year' at the 2024 Americana Honors & Awards, their first Billboard Music Award win for 'Top Country Group,' and the 2025 ACM Award win for 'New Duo or Group of the Year.' They have also garnered back-to-back CMA Award nominations for 'Vocal Group of the Year' for 2024 and 2025, taking home the award at the 59th Annual CMA Awards.

With magnetic performances on The Tonight Show Starring Jimmy Fallon, Jimmy Kimmel Live!, CBS Saturday Morning, and NPR's Tiny Desk, the band also released their first live album, Live At The Ryman, recorded during their three-night stint at the historic Ryman Auditorium in Nashville as part of their sold-out 2024 These Moments Tour. The group recently wrapped the North American and European legs of their sold-out global Get Right Tour, making notable stops at the Greek Theatre in Los Angeles, two nights at Red Rocks Amphitheatre, and three nights at The Amphitheater at the Wharf in their home state of Alabama. In 2026, the band has announced performances at Stagecoach, Madison Square Garden, and two nights at Nashville's Bridgestone Arena.
